THE Beatty Piano and Beatty's Golden Tongue Organ, manufactured by Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, N. J., are highly endorsed by all who have tested them, and in the style of case, durability, and sweetness of tone. They are said to excel any other instruments in perfect construction. See his advertisement in another column.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.—No people in the world suffer so much with dyspepsia as Americans. Although years of experience in medicine have failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this disease, and its effects such as Sour Stomach, Heart Burn, Water-brash, Sick Headache, Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, coming up of food, loss of spirits, general debility, etc., yet we have the introduction of GRAY'S AGUE FLOWER, we believe there is no case of dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved. 30,000 lines sold last year without one return of failure reported. Go to your Druggists, Babcock & Stagg, and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size 75 cents.

MR. DANIEL F. BEATTY, manufacturer and proprietor of the Beatty Piano and Beatty's celebrated Golden Tongue Parlor Organ, Washington, N. J., is certainly a very reasonable and generous man to transact business with. He makes this very fair proposition to any who may favor him with an order, as follows: "If the instrument does not prove satisfactory after a test trial of five days after receiving it, the purchase money will be refunded upon the return of the instrument, and he will pay the freight charges both ways." This is certainly an exceeding generous and safe manner in which to transact business with him. He has large fine instruments for sale. See his advertisement.

LOCAL NEWS.

MISS JENNIE SANDIFER, of Pulaski, is visiting the Misses CARTER of this place.

A FIRST class Hotel in Stanford, can be purchased or leased. Address this office.

THE wife of Thos. A. Ekin, Esq., of Garretts county, died recently, of Consumption.

MR. J. R. ADAMS, one of the cleverest drummers in the State, was in town this week, and favored us with a call.

PERSONAL.—Miss Lizzie Hoffman, of Cincinnati, and Miss Sallie Cook Hoffman, of Lancaster, are visiting relatives here.

THE SUMMER Term of the Garretts Circuit Court, commenced on Monday last, and will remain in session three weeks.

DR. S. P. CRAB and Mr. E. B. Hayden, after spending a pleasant week at Rockcastle Springs, returned home last Saturday.

AL. HUFFMAN left for Paducah, Ky., last Monday. A great big grin glinted in each eye as he bade farewell to familiar scenes and his sweethearts.

MR. ORVILLE P. MARSHALL, after a few months stay in Omaha, Nebraska, is here on a short visit. He looks well, and reports good times in the West.

THE Madison County Fair was a success in every particular. Peculiarly, it was a complete triumph, as we learn from the management that the net profits were over a thousand dollars. Rally.

KNITTING YARNS in all colors, and no matter in quality, can be bought at Hayden Brothers very low, for the character of the goods. Ladies, go there and lay in your winter supply.

A HANDSOME flag of fair size floats over the Carriage Repository of Judge Dennis, and D. F. Bash, at the upper end of Main Street, whereon is written, Tilden, Hendricks, Durbin and Reform.

OUR countryman, A. B. Owen, after selling out, declined going West, and has rented a farm of H. T. Bush, near town, on the Millersburg pike, and probably may remain there for several years.

I HAVE several fine Red Berkshire pigs for sale, at a reasonable price. These hogs are known to be the best variety, as they fatten early, and are very thrifty.

WE were much pleased to see in our of-fice on Wednesday, Mr. J. R. Murre and Mr. J. L. Bruce, of the Danville Advertiser. We always feel better after talking with these wide-awake gentlemen, and wish that their visits were not so few and far between.

HOTEL, in Stanford for sale or lease, for from five to ten years. One-half or all can be purchased on time payments, one, two, three, four and five years. The Hotel can be converted into two dwellings. None need apply but responsible persons. For further information, apply at this office.

Our streets were transformed into "raging canyons" by the heavy rain last evening, and the town branch was on the big "high" of the season.

SOMETHING attractive in the way of hats can be seen at Hayden Brothers. They received this week a full line, and have many new and tasteful styles which are all the "rage" in the cities. Just drop in and examine them, whether you want to buy or not.

THE finest lot of Louisville made Jeans ever now was exhibited to us last Wednesday by Hayden Brothers. Now is the time to have made up your fall and winter garments, as you can buy the goods cheaper this month and next than you can later in the season.

MR. JOHN P. LEONARD, our affable and learned Greek townman, has accepted a Fellowship in Warren College, at Bowling Green, and will leave for his new home in a few days. He carries with him the good wishes of a host of friends in Stanford.

THE following gentlemen have been appointed Democratic Electors in their respective counties: Judge M. C. Sandley, Lincoln; Hon. J. B. McFerran, Boyle; W. D. Hopper, Garrard; G. E. Stone, Casey; L. N. Shepperd, Wayne; O. H. Waddell, Pulaski; J. B. T. Davies, Mercer.

TOM HAYES has the finest, coolest, and sweetest watermelons that we have yet seen in this season. He says he does not permit stock to get in his vines and injure them, and hence their superior quality. Give Tom your small change, you will more than get value received.

TO-MORROW is the day set for the various Committees on the Lincoln county historical society to meet and hand in their notes. Let there be a full attendance. We should not slack in the good work, because it is to our best interest that a thorough sketch be prepared. The meeting will be held at 3 o'clock, in the Court-house.

ABOUT the first of next month, Hayden Brothers will leave for the Eastern market to purchase a splendid Fall and Winter Stock of Goods. To make room for the same, they offer at prices which cannot be undersold, every article of Summer wear. It would be a good investment for you to buy now for next Summer's use.

THE worthy President of the Danville and Crab Orchard Turnpike Company is remitting the turnpike, and will put it in first class order "if it takes all summer." The Directors of the road have determined to build a new toll-house for "Uncle" John H. Hopper, at a cost of about one thousand dollars, and will commence it next month.

THE Cumberland and Ohio rail-road has been at a stand for some time, owing to the fact that the bond required to be given by them had not been made. The matter was to have been attended to at the present term of the Garretts Circuit Court, and we trust it has been, or will be done. When executed, the Directors promise to resume work promptly.

A BABY named Abe Gum, of Madison county, took the certificate in the baby show at Richmond, last week, and Dan Williams, of the same county, took the premium. A baby girl of Mr. John Taylor, took the premium in the female ring, and a daughter of Mr. Lou Maupin, the certificate. A "fine display" of $100 in silver coins, for the prize of $100 silver cup.

RAIL AT CRAB ORCHARD SPRING.—A grand ball will be given at Crab Orchard Springs on next Friday evening, August 18th. Kerker's String Band which furnished such excellent music at McCauley's Theatre in Louisville last winter, is there for the season. Those who contemplate visiting Crab Orchard this Summer, should by all means, be present at this ball, which will be the affair of the season.

REV. W. W. HARRIS, who, for some months past, has so acceptably filled the pulpit of the Baptist Church here, owing to a severe bronchial affection, has been compelled to tender his resignation, and contemplates going to a Southern climate for the benefit of his health. We learn that his congregation greatly deplore the necessity of his resignation, and hope that he may be restored to health and again come to labor with them.

IF any of our readers think this Congressional District is not Democratic when the people try, let them consult the records and they will find that, notwithstanding the popularity of Gen. John M. Harlan, who carried off a goodly number of Democratic votes, he was defeated in this District by over 1300 majority for McCrory, in the last gubernatorial race. Durham, if our friends in all of the counties do their whole duty, will increase that majority to 2,000.

C. S. R. R.—Track laying in our vicinity has been suspended for several days, owing to the failure of the Trustees to supply the chairs necessary for the work. To those unacquainted with railroad nomenclature, we would say that the chain spoken of, are not for the workmen to sit in, but are used to connect and hold together the iron rails. The iron is laid down for about ten miles, but the ties are embedded as far as McKinley's Station, a distance of about fifteen miles.

THIS paper has always taken a special pride in the undertakings of the sturdy sons of the "Bald Hill" section of our county; and when one of them takes a premium at a Fair, or leads the county in a corn show, or does any other remarkable thing, we take a special pleasure in publishing it. For instance: one day last week, Traylor's celebrated "Longfellow" steam thrasher crossed over into Garretts and threshed in six hours 619 bushels of wheat, and moved the machine once during the time. To effect this remarkable work, the old Dufferin mill has been making of this year's wheat fully forty pounds of fine flour to the bushel. We are now ready to hear from "Hanging Fork."

AN old farmer, who, for sixty-two years, has been right here in Lincoln, and during the most of the time tended a farm, and besides, has taken observations of things in general, tells us that there was never in his recollection, such a general plenty of all kinds of farm products. Wheat, he says, never yielded a better return. Rye was an abundant crop. Potatoes and watermelons are fed to the hogs, there is not enough stock in Kentucky to consume the immense crop of hay, and the probability is, that with the present flattering prospects for corn, it will go begging at 12 1/2 cents per bushel. Truly, the year of Jubilee has come.

One of those pleasant little sentimental young editors are so apt to term "a refreshing oasis in the printer's desert life," is a call from a very pretty, entertaining young lady. We are indebted to one of these "beauties" for one of those casual-casual last Tuesday.

THE remains of Mr. William Trotter, of Indiana, who died in Somerset with an affection of the bowels, were put on the train here on Friday last, to be conveyed to his home. Mr. Trotter was engaged in delivering supplies along the C. & E. R. R. and had been in this country about two years. He was a correct business man and much liked by those with whom he dealt.

If a merchant desires to employ a clerk, let him observe the habits of the clerks in town during dull seasons of the year. The valuable or well trained salesman keeps his counters clear of goods and stock, his stock neatly placed in the shelves, his floor free from dirt and litter, his show windows clean and neatly dressed, his desk clear of waste paper, and books posted. He abstains from loitering on the sidewalks during business hours, and now allows loafers to congregate in his store.

THE suggestion made recently, that we have a grand Democratic barbecue near town about the middle of next month, we are glad to learn, has met with universal favor; and the ladies (God bless them!) say that although the men deny them the use of the halloo, yet they are ready and willing, like Miss Cutters, to battle for Tilden, Hendricks, Durbin, and Reform. Now that Congress has adjourned, we hope the committee on "Oratory and Orators" will give an invitation to Hon. Henry Watterson to come and address the people on that occasion. At County Court day, Sept. 4th, the committee of arrangements will be announced on what day the barbecue will be held, and at what point.

A MAN named Brown was arrested at Shelby City, last Tuesday morning, charged with stealing three mules from parties living in Jessamine county. He sold two of them (fine animals) to Mr. Wm. Burton, in this county, for $65 and $50 each, and the third one he left with Mr. Burton to put on pasture. The owners of the mules got on the track of the thief, and by the aid of Constable Sam Campbell, they found him and the mules, and took possession of all. Brown, the alleged thief, said he bought the animals but that he was the owner of the transaction. The money paid by Burton for the two mules, has not been restored to him, and it would seem that if the man Brown is innocent, he would have paid it back again. He was lodged in jail here, to await trial.

DR. C. C. GRAHAM, of the Louisville Public Library, is here on his way home from the Mountains, where he has been collecting specimens for his Museum, and should any of our citizens feel disposed to contribute either to the Library or the Museum, their gifts will be kindly received and carefully preserved. The Doctor was born in a fort near this place, in 1784, and has witnessed many of the early and trying scenes of the "Dark and Bloody Ground." From a brief conversation with this venerable, yet, clear headed, and energetic man, we learned more of the unwritten history of this part of the country, than we ever knew before. A talk with him is equivalent to reading an accurate history of by-gone men and things written in a romantic style.

WE learn that there has been a local difficulty among several of the citizens of Crab Orchard, in which four have been concerned that much more trouble would ensue. To avoid that, mutual friends have sought an interview with both parties in order to accomplish an amicable settlement of the affair. We sincerely hope that such negotiations will prove effectual. As a law-abiding people our citizens have been distinguished for years, and we cannot afford now to jeopardize our past good name and fame by standing by, with folded hands, without an effort at reconciliation. Let all peaceful means be exhausted first. Let all peace of peace. If these should fail, which we do not fear, then our only recourse must be to the strong arm of the law, and under its protection our officers can and will go to a fearless discharge of their duty regarding consequences, and all good law-abiding citizens will applaud and uphold them in carrying out the mandates of our courts.

P. S.—S. H. Hickie, went yesterday evening and served the warrant of arrest on Walter Saunders, who, contrary to the general belief, made no opposition, but gave bond for his appearance on the day named. Mr. Hickie was in his possession, a letter from Mr. Saunders, greatly repudiating the idea of resisting an officer, and says at all times he will most cheerfully submit to any process of law. He claims to have been greatly misrepresented. We would willingly have published the letter as requested by Mr. Hickie, but he did not arrive with it till nearly 8 o'clock, last night.

THE Pic-Nic.—Extensive preparations were made for the Sunday School and Temperance picnic which took place last Saturday near Mt. Xenia, and a large crowd was drawn together. Unfortunately, just as the very entertaining programme was about to be commenced, Jupiter Pluvius let loose his hold on the food-gods of heaven, and such a rain descended (it always rains on a picnic day) as is seldom witnessed. The ladies were hastily stored away in buggies, enclosures, etc., but the poor men had to stand and catch it all; and even as wet as they were, after the storm, hitched themselves to the various vehicles and pulled the dear creatures to the table, which literally groaned (we believe that is the word) with an endless variety of good things; and notwithstanding many a tender little heart was sick at the probable ruin of a hat or the disfigurement of a dress, their appetites were not affected, but did ample justice to the tempting viands so profusely offered. After the dinner a goodly number of the party repaired to the Mt. Xenia Church, and the young men who were "going" to deliver those speeches that they had worked so hard on, brightened up at the prospect of getting a chance to display their eloquence; but each young man that had his sweetheart with him seemed more desirous of orating a little speech to her than listening to "those" speeches aforesaid, so the would-be orators had to retire, and, as yet, "those" speeches are lost to the world! We understand that the endeavor to restrain his pent-up eloquence has seriously impaired Wallace Varmon's health. Have another picnic, Brother Simpson & Co., when all signs of rain have failed, and give the poor fellow a chance.

In looking over the delegation to the Democratic Convention which met here last Wednesday, we noticed men of mature age, who seemed to be in earnest. From each county we recognize men who had grown grey with years, and they entered into the proceedings with a hearty good will. We feel assured that every delegate left the Court-house with a determination to do all within his individual power to aid in the election of our State and Federal nominees. With such a spirit, there can be no such word as fail.

We have mentioned briefly heretofore that a new Sulphur Well has been dug in the edge of our corporate limits, on the lot of Mr. Terhune. For a time it was feared that the water would lose its strength by streams of other kinds of water finding a passage into it, as was the case with other wells in and near town, but in that we have all been greatly disappointed, as the water of this well has become even more improved with sulphur than it seemed to be at first. It has that color peculiar to all excellent black-sulphur wells and springs, is very cold, with a pleasant saline taste which renders it quite palatable. Some persons are averse to drinking mineral waters for a time, but its daily use in moderate quantities will soon cause such people to become fond of it—no much so, indeed, that they will prefer it to all others. Its daily use regulates the system and produces a healthful preparation. For kidney complaints it is almost a specific in many mild cases, as its diuretic properties are known and recognized as a remedial agent by the medical profession. Our citizens, very generally, are making use of it, pure to their advantage, and country people, pure mineral water within and fresh water for ablutions, freely used, will render the system healthy.

THE BRIGHT HOPES OF YOUTH BLAZED.—TAKEN FOR ROMANCE.—PERCIVAL BROWNE, INTO REQUISITION.—AN ARRESTING ESCAPE!—Two youths, one employed in a well known clothing store, the other prominently connected with this paper, conceived the happy idea, a few evenings since, of going on a courting expedition some miles in the country. They arrayed themselves in their very best clothes, and, procuring a fine turn-out, awaited until the dark mantle of night was being gathered around, and then set out to make their call. Not knowing the way very well, and the house being several miles remote from the turnpike, they did not reach their destination till half-past 9 o'clock. Now, the inmates of the house were sober, industrious people, and believed in the good old maxim, "Early to bed and early to rise, will make a man rich, body and soul." They had almost withdrawn in the morning, when the youths held a council, and finally agreed that it would never do to return to town without letting the young lady know that they had called, began to hammer on the front door, but soon found out that they were at the wrong one to produce the desired effect. Reparing to the back door, their repeated rapings soon brought a night-cap to the window, from which the authoritative inquiry came: "Who is that?" One of the youths answered, "John Doolittle, of Stanford." "It is a lie," shouted the head in the window, "John Doolittle wouldn't be here this time of night!" "We came calling," meekly replied John, who commenced to advance sufficiently near to prove his identity.

"Stop right there, sir!" came the order, and John, beholding the gleam of a pistol, in the calm night air, almost withdrew in his streams. "Throw the light on him, James," said the head in the window to his brother, which, being done, revealed the fact that it was, indeed, the veritable John. Tom Green, who had, up to this time, feared to open his mouth, then came forward; explanations were made, the youths were invited in, handsomely treated, and all laughed heartily over the ridiculous episode. The youths, though nearly scared out of their wits, had sufficient compassion on the young lady to object to her being aroused from her sweet slumbers; so, with heavy hearts, and sorely crestfallen, they seated themselves in their little buggy and betook themselves to town, cursing the cruel fate that kept them from accomplishing the object of their visit. Better stay at home, youths, till the soft dawn now on your upper lips will have been transformed into a decent moustache.

CONVENTION.—During the absence of the Committee on resolutions, a call was made on the Chairman of the Convention, Judge Ed. Turner, of Richmond, for a speech. The Judge somewhat reluctantly responded to the call, and for fifteen minutes entertained the audience with a speech which was replete with sound Democratic doctrine. He is a man of commanding appearance, and, in address, and his remarks were well received. Col. Wm. J. Lusk, a Garretts county wheel-horse in the Democratic wagon, being called for, entertained the assembled multitude for a short time, and put the people in a good humor by an anecdote. He closed with a glowing tribute to our National Flag, and urged the Democracy to take their whole duty toward the election of Tilden and Hendricks. Our townsmen, Mr. Varmon, made a characteristic speech, and started out with the assertion that Tilden and Hendricks were bound to be elected in November, and he said he could prove it. Mr. Varmon referred to the fact that whenever the Democrats elected a Speaker of the House of Representatives, it was sure to be followed by the election of a Democratic President; and he cited instances to prove his contention, from the year 1836, to the year 1860. He advocated the making up of Tilden Glee Clubs all over the country, and suggested that the ball be set in motion then and there, by a Tilden song from Judge Turner, who, he declared, was one of the finest singers in the State. After repeated calls, Col. T. P. Hill, who had canvassed the District for the nomination to Congress last year, and who had declined some time ago to prosecute the canvass any further, came forward and delivered one of his best speeches in behalf of Tilden and Hendricks, and Judge Durham. Col. Hill's speech was replete with classic lore and sound Democratic doctrine. He urged, in the short time he occupied the stand, harmony in our ranks, and called upon all true Democrats to work for our State and National tickets, asserting that there would be a change in our rulers at the November election, and that such a change was necessary in order to perpetuate our Democratic form of government. The Convention was largely attended, and was composed of the very best element of our party in the 8th District. Men who came here as delegates had a purpose in view. No selfish motives governed them, and they seemed to be bent on having our nominee for Congress started out on the highest plane. Our parting words to the delegates in attendance, are—stand to your guns—leave no stone unturned, and go forth to the battle, fearless, and victory will be ours in November.

Miscellaneous.
COAL Oil has advanced steadily for several weeks, and is now retelling at 35 cts per gallon.
Puppy-Love is raging hereabouts in epidemic form. Nor cards and cake will likely result, however.
TWIN BROTHER Yarns Cakes are perfectly pure—and that cannot be said of very many yarn preparations offered on the market.
FARMER Baker's Chocolate, Cakes of Gelatine, Royal Dandelion Cocoa, Durbin's Salad Dressing, Oswego Corn Starch, National A. Cream Tartar, Lemon Sugar, etc., received lately.
THE finest Jelly Glass in the market, at our dollar per dozen.

Our TWO-CENT SOAP.—The third edition of recipes for making our celebrated hand laundry soap has been exhausted. One hundred families in the county are using it. The soap costs not exceeding two cents a pound. Forty cents will buy the ingredients for a trial. The following is the recipe:—Put into an iron kettle five gallons of soft water, to this add five pounds of Pure Soda Ash, and three pounds of unbleached Lard; boil the mixture three quarters of an hour; then dip all out into a tub, straining the oil, and let it sit until it settles (the lye will rise quite clear), then dip it off and put into your kettle; to this add three gallons of refuse grease, measured, and boil from two to three hours. If solid or rich grease is used, add one fourth less. You may try it by dropping a little in a saucer, and, if hard, it is done. You may then pour it into a tub, let it remain until next day, then cut in bars to suit yourself.

Genuine Shaker Brooms—those that sweep clean, are now offered at 25 cents.
SHAKE THE Big Bonanza.
CREW Holland's Empire.
Put "Lone Jack" in your pipe.

We make a specialty in Tin and Japanned ware.
Save time and money by buying grain shovels to handle your small grain.
Attention is called to our quotations of Groceries and Hardware, elsewhere.
Supply your wife with lots of stone milk pans, butter crocks, strainers, skimmer, etc.
All good smokers choose the Best of the Nicks.
Toilet Soap of a dozen different varieties at from 50 cts to $1.25 per dozen. German Soap at 50 cts per dozen. Irish and India Soap at $1.00 per dozen. Soda Ash Soap at 50 cts per dozen.
Are handles, hoe handles, pick handles, rake handles, plow handles, spade handles—all sorts of handles are handled by us.
Why the people use Turkish Bath Soap: 1st. One cake will outlast two cakes of any toilet soap in use. 2nd. It imparts to the skin a soft, velvety appearance and keeps it in an active and healthy condition. 3rd. It never chaps the skin, and will cure skin diseases. 4th. In every essential it has no equal. 5th. It is so cheap.

A complete stock of collars, hame, trace-chains, hame-strings, backbands, blind-birds, girths, bridle-reins, riding bridles, bits, blinkers, maps, harness thread, rivets, awls, tacks, etc. Reasonable reductions made for full sets of gear.
Every farmer should own a farm-bell. Nothing more useful in case of fire, accident, sudden sickness, and for calling the farmer and his hands to meals. We have just accepted the agency of the celebrated Fredericktown Bell makers, and are offering their medium farm bell at $7.50. Call and see it.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP ITEMS.

SILAS COBB, of Madison county, sold to Mr. Kyle 50 aged mules at $135 per head.

SCOTTIE Robt. Blaine lost a fine mare last week, of the value of $200. Her discom was not known.

BEN. EUBANK, three miles North of Stanford, has a bottom corn field, that will average eighteen barrels to the acre.

A GENTLEMAN in Scott county, recently sold 40 hogs that averaged 340 lbs. at $6 55 per hundred. The snug little sum of $260 was realized.

THERE were very few cattle on the Lexington market last Monday, and being of inferior quality, sold low. A private sale was made of 54 2-year old males, at $127 50. Broke mules brought from $150 to $160.

J. B. OWENS has an Alderney Bull which he will "farm out" at $5 per cow, and allow the farmer to bring him until his cow has a calf. His animal is thoroughbred, and this breed is known as the best milk and butter stock in the world. The animal is convenient to town.

GRAPES of all kinds, are so abundant and fine this season, that they are sold at a merely nominal price. The finest are the Concord, so far size and color are concerned, but the Catawba, which will not be ripe until the middle of September, is a much better table grape. One of our grape growers has erected a distillery, and will make his crop into brandy and vinegar.

A PARIS correspondent of the Courier-Journal wrote to that paper that at Bedford's Storey Hill side of short horn cattle on the 10th of this month, sixty-six head sold for an aggregate of $52,695. Several other sales were made during the past few days, and the grand aggregate was 219 females for $113,685 (average, per head, $519); 71 bulls for $35,070, at an average per head of $494.

At the sale of S. R. Cook, in this county the other day, J. M. Higgins, auctioneer, the following stock, etc., was sold: One dun horse, $37; one bay do, $21.50; one rock-away, $175; one maver, $41; one buck, $67.50; one do, $7; ten yearling ewes, $30 each; twenty ewes, $25.50 each; twenty do, $27.00 each; twenty do, $25.00 each; twenty do, $23.25 each; twenty lambs, $2 each; eighteen lambs, $1.30 each; sixteen weathers, $3 each; one spring wagon, $25.75.

A NUMBER of our gardeners complain of the ravages of a green worm on their tomato vines. If they will look closely, the monster can be found. Under the vine its droppings can be seen on the ground, which look like large green worms. When these are seen, be sure it is on the vine over it. Look carefully, as it is hard to see, being precisely the color of the green fruit and the plant. Only four or five of these ugly customers are required to destroy ten or fifteen times that number of plants in a short time.
